Sleek and Discreet Equipment

Simple to Use

The wireless transmitter functions like a single button TV remote that can be worn, or placed nearby. Once activated, your call will be answered by a trained professional.

Dependable

Our MagLife equipment is listed as a home healthcare signaling device by Underwriters Laboratories (UL), the trusted resource across the globe for product safety certification.

Versatile

Our system is outfitted to meet your needs and lifestyle. Choose from a variety of wireless transmitters, including necklace pendants, key-rings, belt clip, and wristbands. Completely water-resistant, it's safe enough to wear in the shower or outside around your home.
